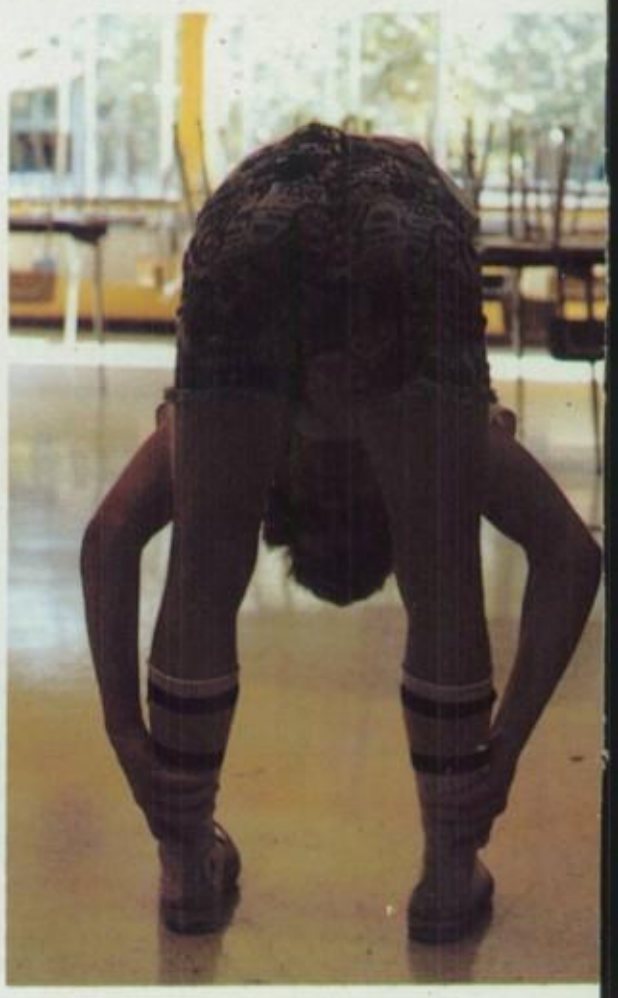
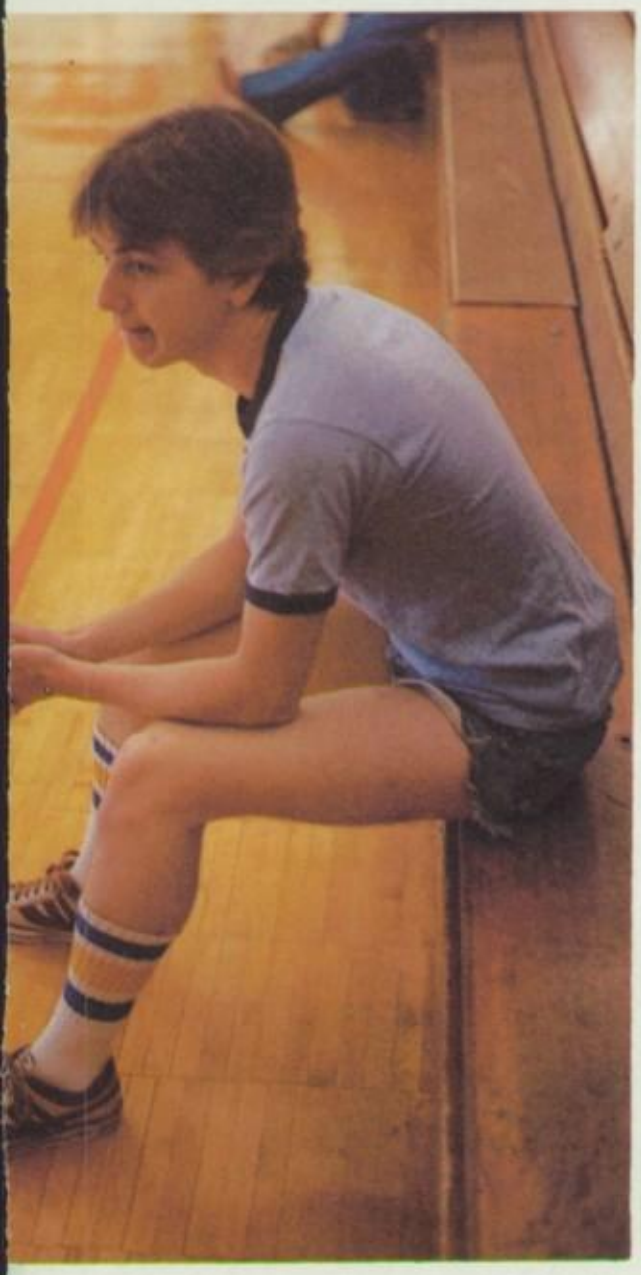
Triumph

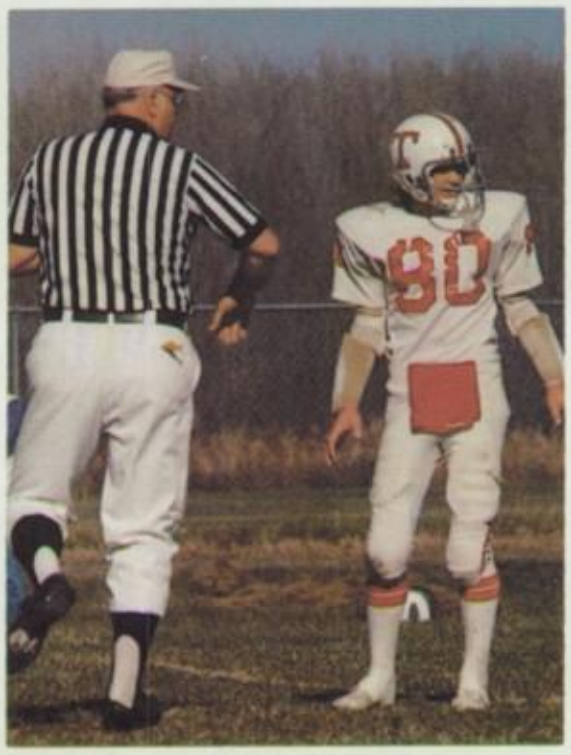
We do not know what road to take,
Because it's hard to find our way.

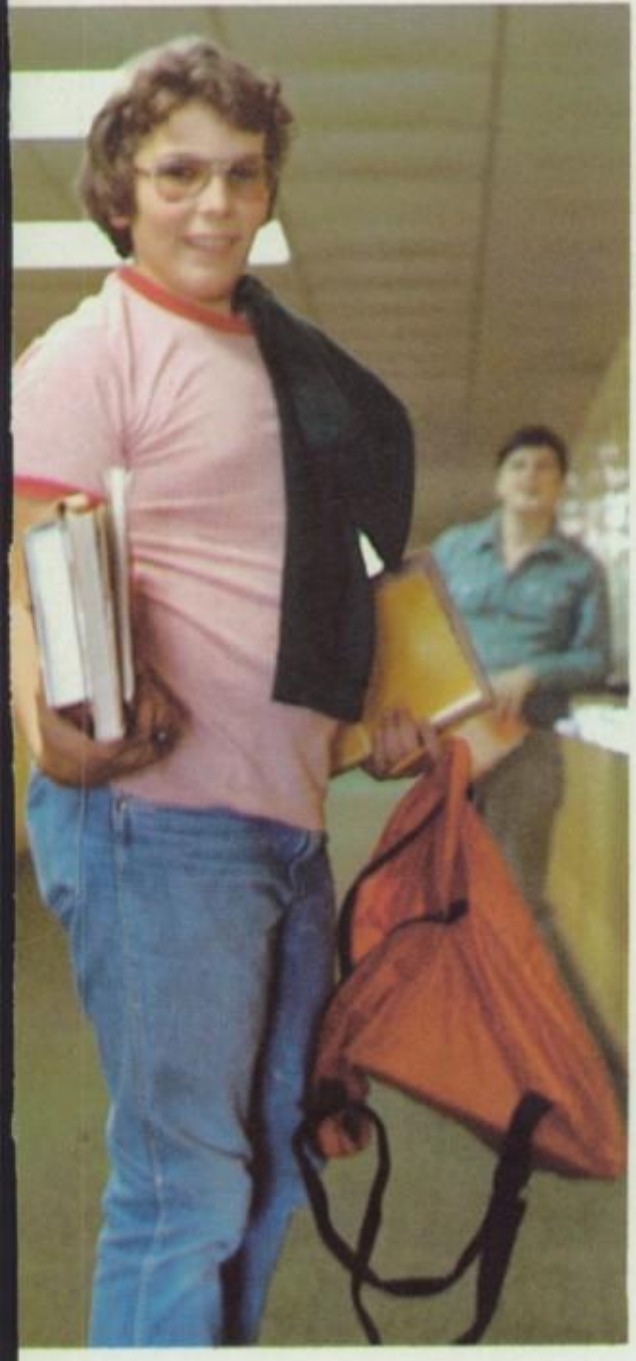


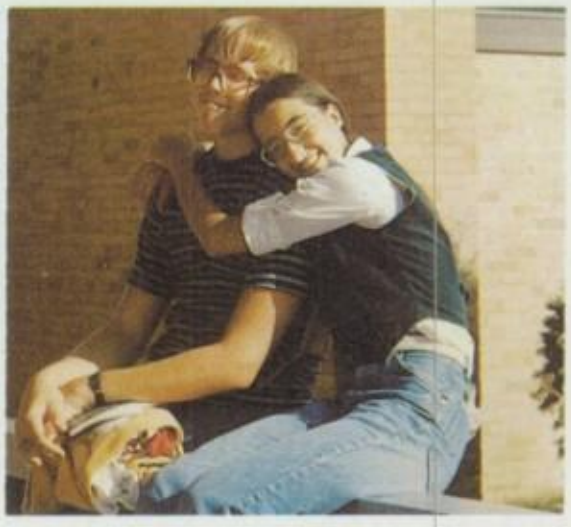
I often think the times get crazier,
As this old world goes round and round.

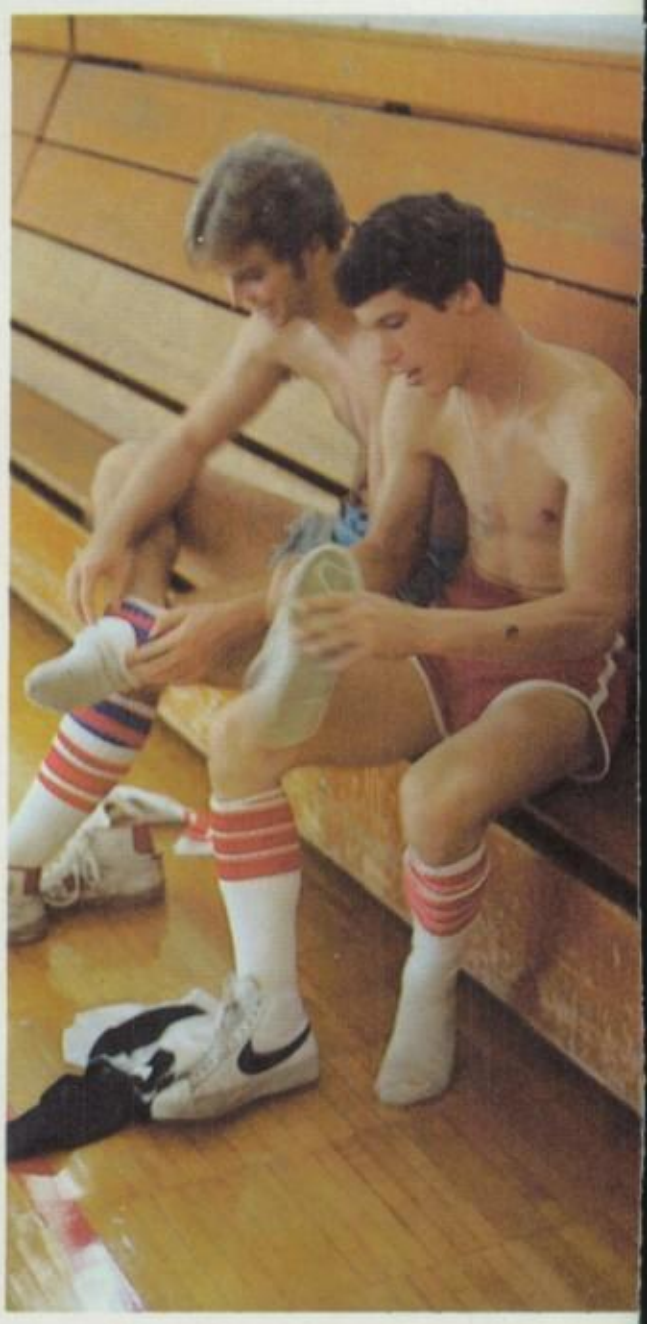
But just the memory makes it easier,
As this highway goes up and down.





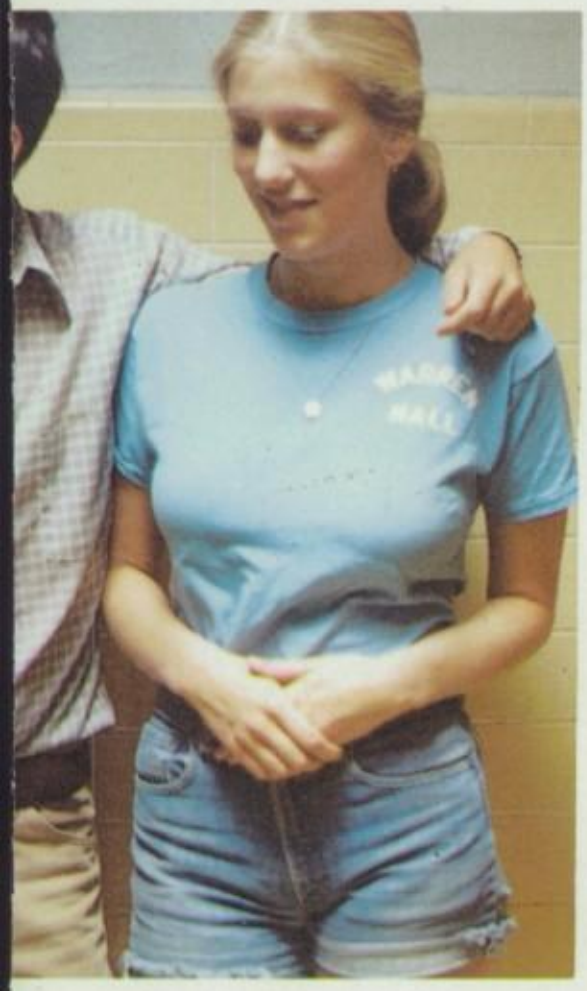




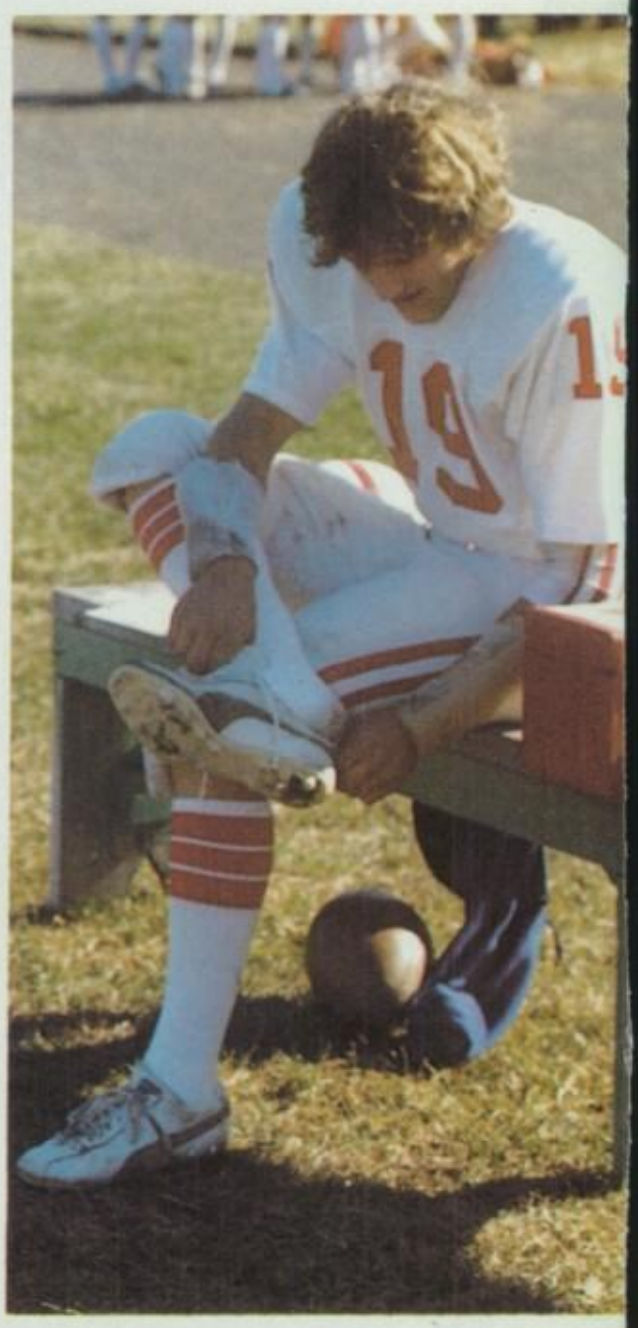


Lately word has been coming back to me,
There's a few I will no longer see.

Their faces won't be seen along the road,
There'll be a few less hands to hold.



But for the ones whose journeys ended,
Though they started so much the same.



In the hearts of those befriended,
Burns a candle with a silver flame.

"Remember old friends,
We've made along the way,
The gifts they've given,
Stay with us every day."

GOD'S CHILD

"I'll loan you — for a little while a child of mine,"
God said.
"For you to love the while he lives and mourn for
When he's dead.
It may be six or seven years, or forty-two or Three,
But will you 'till I call him back — take care of Him for me?
He'll bring his charms to gladden you and should
His stay be brief,
You'll have these lovely memories as solace for
Your grief.
I cannot promise he will stay, since all from earth
Return,
But there are lessons taught below I want this Child to learn.
I've looked the whole world over in my search for Teachers true,
And from the throng that crowds life's lane — I've Searched and chosen you.
Now, will you give him all your love nor think the Labor vain,
Nor hate me — when I come once more to take him
Home again?
I fancied that I heard you say, "Dear Lord Thy
Will be done,"
For all the joys this child will bring the risk
Of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter him with tenderness, we'll love him
While we may,
And for the happiness we've known forever
Grateful stay.
And should the angels call for him much sooner
Than we planned,
We'll try to brave the grief that comes and try to Understand."

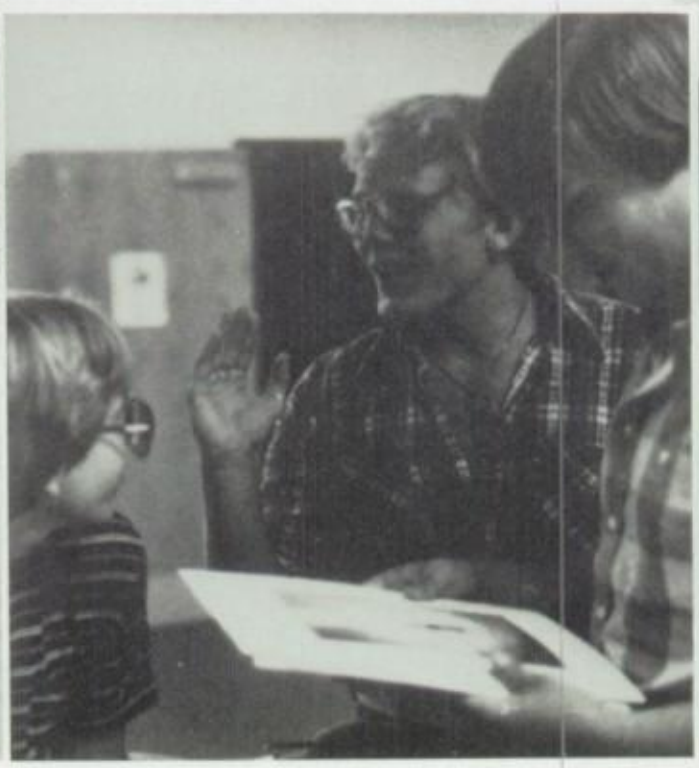
We began our Freshman year as the Class of '79. It was a whole new direction and experience for us. On the first day of school, we were introduced to Mr. LaPointe, a dedicated and unselfish man, determined to help our class become number one.

In our first year, naive, innocent, yet daring, we met Mrs. Haskins and learned of all the new and different places of the Asian and African World. We also taught her a few new things. Perhaps that is why she retired at the end of the year.

In March, our Freshman class was exposed to some of the many new experiences that we were to have during our high school years. Our first musical, "Guys and Dolls", was found to be very revealing. In the spring we took our first step into the spotlight and sponsored our soon-to-be-annual, semi-formal for the Seniors. Many attended, and it turned out to be a huge success.



As Sophomores, everything appeared to fall into place — or so it seemed. However, the school soon took a turn for the worse. No one had accurate schedules and many of us were left with more free time than we could handle. This closed school for two days so teachers could reschedule us and straighten everything out.

As our Sophomore year progressed, our class was sponsoring dances more regularly, and we were becoming increasingly more involved in school activities. The play that year was "Oklahoma!", which was carried off in true "Western Style." Many of us entered Biology Club that year and ventured on a fun-filled but educational 3-day trip to Cape Cod, Mass. The class trip to Kadaross will always be remembered. We arrived at about the same time as the Monsoons!

Our Junior year blossomed for us, and there was a feeling of excitement in the air. It must have been in anticipation of the events that were to follow during the year. In October we sponsored the Junior Ring Banquet at the Scot Mar in Waterford. Although no one received the proper ring, we were faced with many of the responsibilities of being upper classmen. Eventually the rings were corrected. Classes were more demanding and our social lives were growing, and soon the Daily Chemistry went to press.

In school, our time was spent in various ways. Who could ever forget the many times we chose to aggravate Mrs. Pratt or the ways in which we utilized our free time in the library while Mrs. Emerson exercised her vocal chords? The Junior Magazine Sale more than met our expectations. We were the first class to reach such a high sales goal. Needless to say, our class moral was lifted to soaring levels.

Outside of school, endless extracurricular activities occupied the remainder of our time. We put on our first prom appropriately titled "The Times of Your Life." A good time was had by all and as a result, many new couples were the talk of the school. The Biology Club even migrated a second time to Boston and Cape Cod, Mass.

During the summer, Triumph '79 was begun with the Senior picture sittings at Lloyd's Studio in Troy. Upon returning in the fall, all was well. The negotiations had been settled and as Seniors, we were restless. The excitement of our "seniority" had set in and we were on the loose. Most received a Senior T-Shirt so that we could remember who we were. Early in September the Yearbook Staff was organized with Mr. Backhaus as our experienced Advisor.

Slowly dreams formed into reality, helped by a Senior Ad campaign that raised in excess of $5,200. Who will ever forget the excitement of the Yearbook Staff Dinner and the oooh's and aaah's as the pages turned.

Other Senior events will long be remembered also, such as the cow's head in the boys' room (may it rest in peace), and the vivacious 50's day where everyone had it "made in the shade" and jitterbugged at the dance that night. Mr. Thrasher will always be remembered for his prediction on when "senioritis" would set in. Hallblocks were famous especially with L.D. on Thursdays and Fridays. The joys from the looks on the younger students faces was well worth the consequences suffered. The Christmas spirit was evident in the school when members of the class decided to "recompose" "The Twelve Days of Christmas."

For the lovers of the school as well as good friends, a Carnation Day was held on Valentine's Day. Many participated in its preparation and it was found that school spirit was still alive and well. In March we gave our first spaghetti supper. Talk about oodles of noodles!

This spring we once again set a new record at Tamarac. We are the only class in the history of the school to have sponsored a rock group for a concert. What can we say? Our farewell musical was "Damn Yankees." — Our way of saying goodbye.

Looking back, we will all have fond memories of Tamarac High School. We still have many plans as of press time. The Sr. Trip is sure to be a highlight, and who will ever forget Class Night, Baccalaureat, or Graduation? Tamarac has taught us Responsibility, maturity and preparation for the later years. For this we thank you and leave the school in the hands of future classes ready to challenge our feats.

After Years of Trying
You Finally Made It

Freshman
Homeroom 112

You're on the road of experience,
And trying to find you're own way.
Sometimes you'll wish you could fly away.
When you think things are moving,
Suddenly they'll stand still. You're afraid cause you think they always will.

And... You're looking for Space and to find out who you are, and to understand. It's a sweet, sweet dream. Sometimes you'll be almost there. Sometimes you'll fly like an eagle. And sometimes you'll be deep in despaire. Denver

Mid the Rolling Hills of Brunswick
With the Sky So Blue,
There Stands Our Honored Alma Mater,
Stirring Sight to View
For Strength and Knowledge Gained From Thee
Our Loyal Banners Fly;
We Proudly Raise the Red and White,
All Praise to Tamarac High!

We would like to express our appreciation and thanks to the following people:

Merry and Kate as our Jr. Co-Editors — Good Luck on Triumph '80;

Chris — who started the book off right as our Prelude Editor;

JoAnne and Wendy — who investigated the pasts of our Faculty and Administration;

Debby and Cathy — who pointed the colorful Senior Section in the right direction;

Jim — who successfully rounded up all the Underclassmen;

Sue — who didn't take the Clubs and Activities Section lying down;

Sharon — who was voted Most Valuable Player as Editor of the Sports Section;

Jeff — who kept the Ad Section within its contract;

Chuck and Mike — who didn't draw the line on superb artwork;

Brian — who, as Photography Editor, captured it all on film;

Cathy — who deserves a ribbon for her excellent job as Typing Editor;

And we would especially like to thank Mr. Backhaus, without whom our year would have been much more difficult.

Special thanks to these people for their cooperation and help:

Taylor Publishing Co. and their representative, Jim Simmonds, Lloyd's Studio, the rest of the Triumph Staff, the Library Staff, the Faculty and Administration, and the 1979 Senior Class.
